

Solares de Portugal is a unique concept that was introduced to promote quality tourist accommodation in manor houses of character and, at the same time, preserve the rich legacy of Portugal's architectural and cultural heritage. The Solares represent centuries of Portuguese history and culture. The majority of the grandiose 17th and 18th century houses are of noble origin and still in the ownership of the descendants of the founding family

Solares de Portugal ranges from stately manor houses and elegant country houses, to farm houses and rustic cottages, each with its own individual character. They are family homes as opposed to hotels, offering a very different kind of holiday experience with that's personal touch.

They have since been individually inspected to ensure the highest standards of quality and hospitality. The guests will find a variety of leisure opportunities at their disposal, such as fishing, hunting, golf, swimming, rambling, tennis, horseback riding, cycling and wine tasting.

Casas Antigas

“Casas Antigas” are elegant manor houses and country estates most often originating from the 17th and 18th Centuries. Their architecture is of great heritage significance, the various styles reflecting the distinct chapters in the history of Portugal.
